D E D I C A T I O N

"Because he has contributed so much toward learning at CHHS; because he has inspired us to reach greater heights; because he has strived to develop in us an appreciation for the finer things in life, we gratefully dedicate the 1955 Chieftain to Mr. Earl Edward Stewart."

Foreword

Every highschool yearbook staff hopes to fulfill its purpose in portraying in the pages of its yearbook a complete history of one school year; not only from the academic aspect, but also from the recreational view.

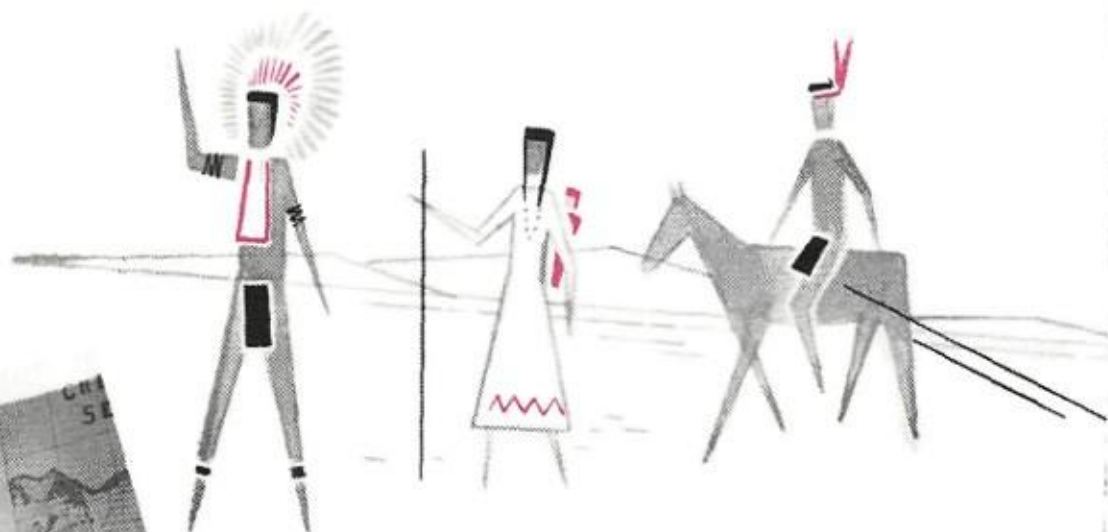

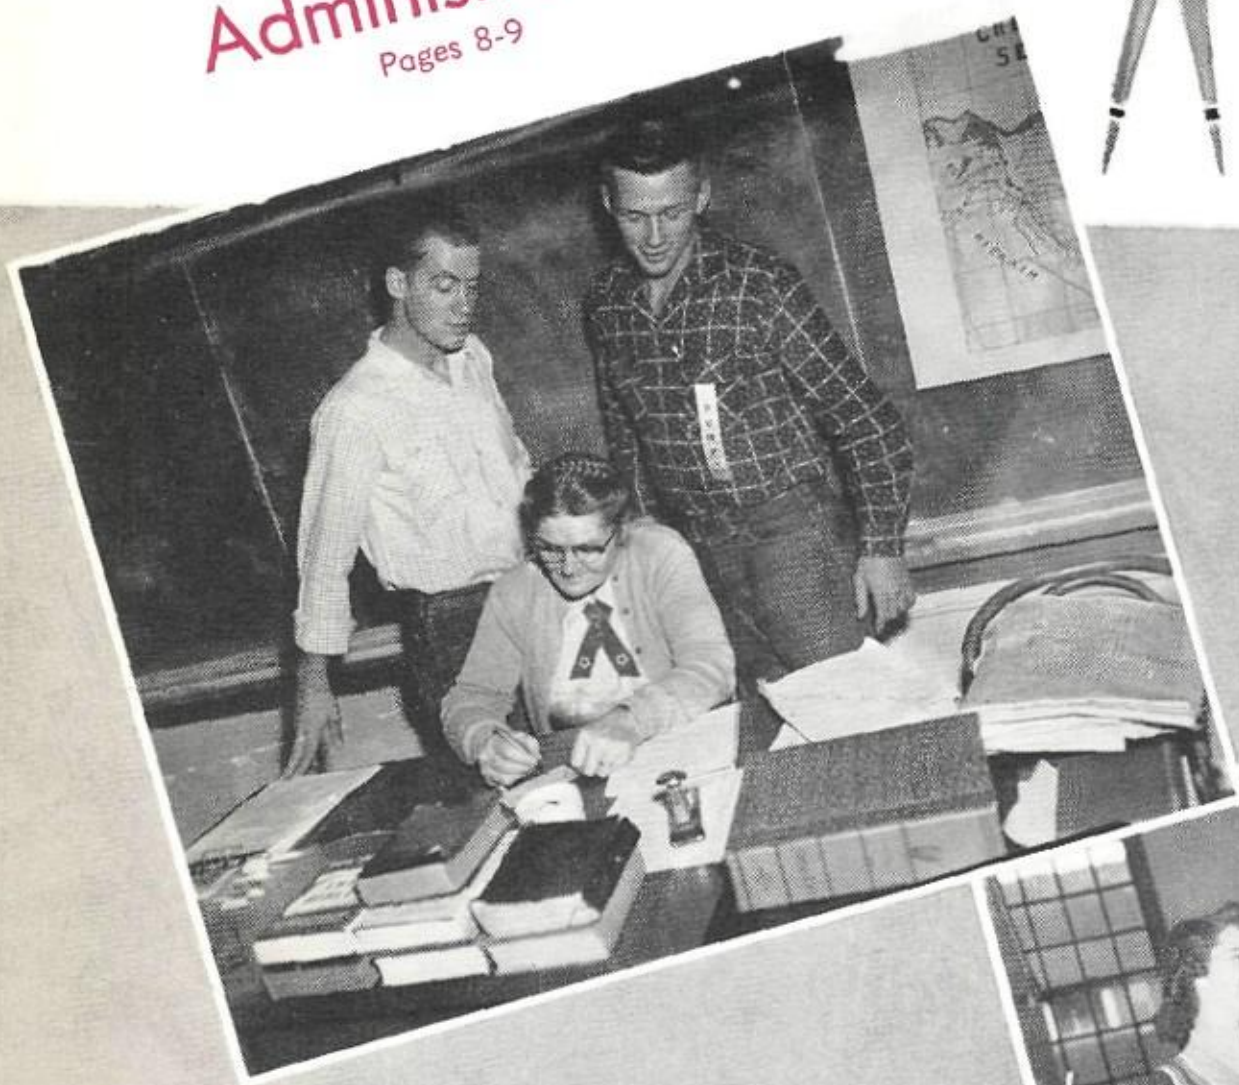

For the benefit of the student body, Capitol Hill provides a wide choice of subjects; some academic, others commercial and still others vocational, all with well-trained and experienced teachers to whom a person can look for guidance.

Aside from the regular curriculum of students, CHHS provides a year well-filled with extra-curricular activities such as pledging, club meetings, dances, plays, sports, elections and a little of almost everything.

In this yearbook we hope to bring a picture of these things to you in such a way that you will remember all the small things along with the bigger things that go into making up this year in the life of CHHS.

All Hail To CHHS

TOP:

One of the newer landscapes on the campus of CHHS is the vocational building. Classes covering every phase of vocational study are held here. Shown in the background is the greenhouse.

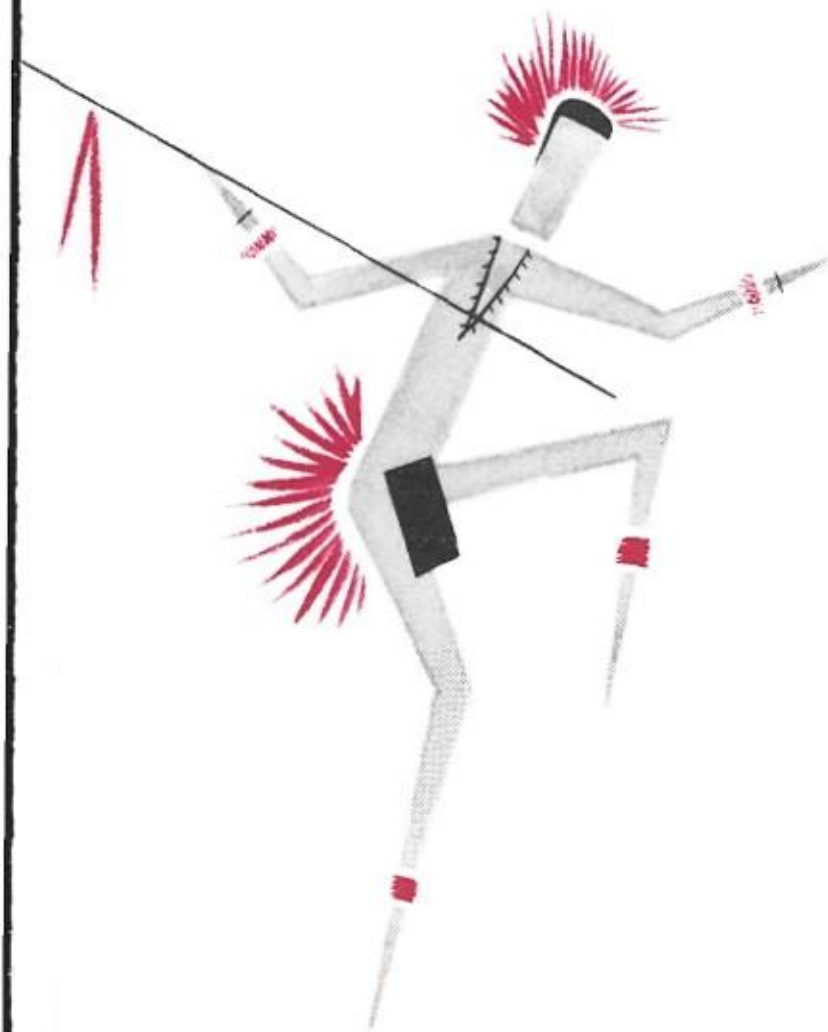

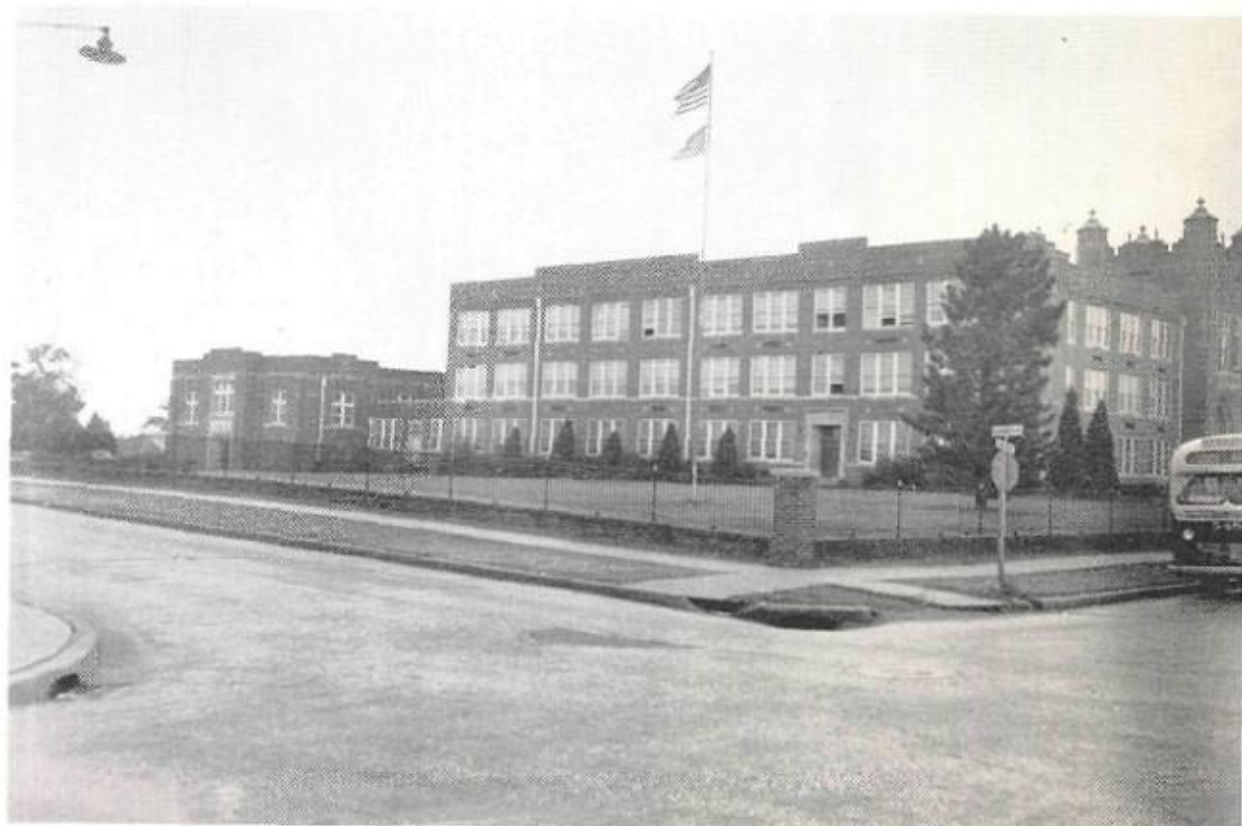

CENTER:

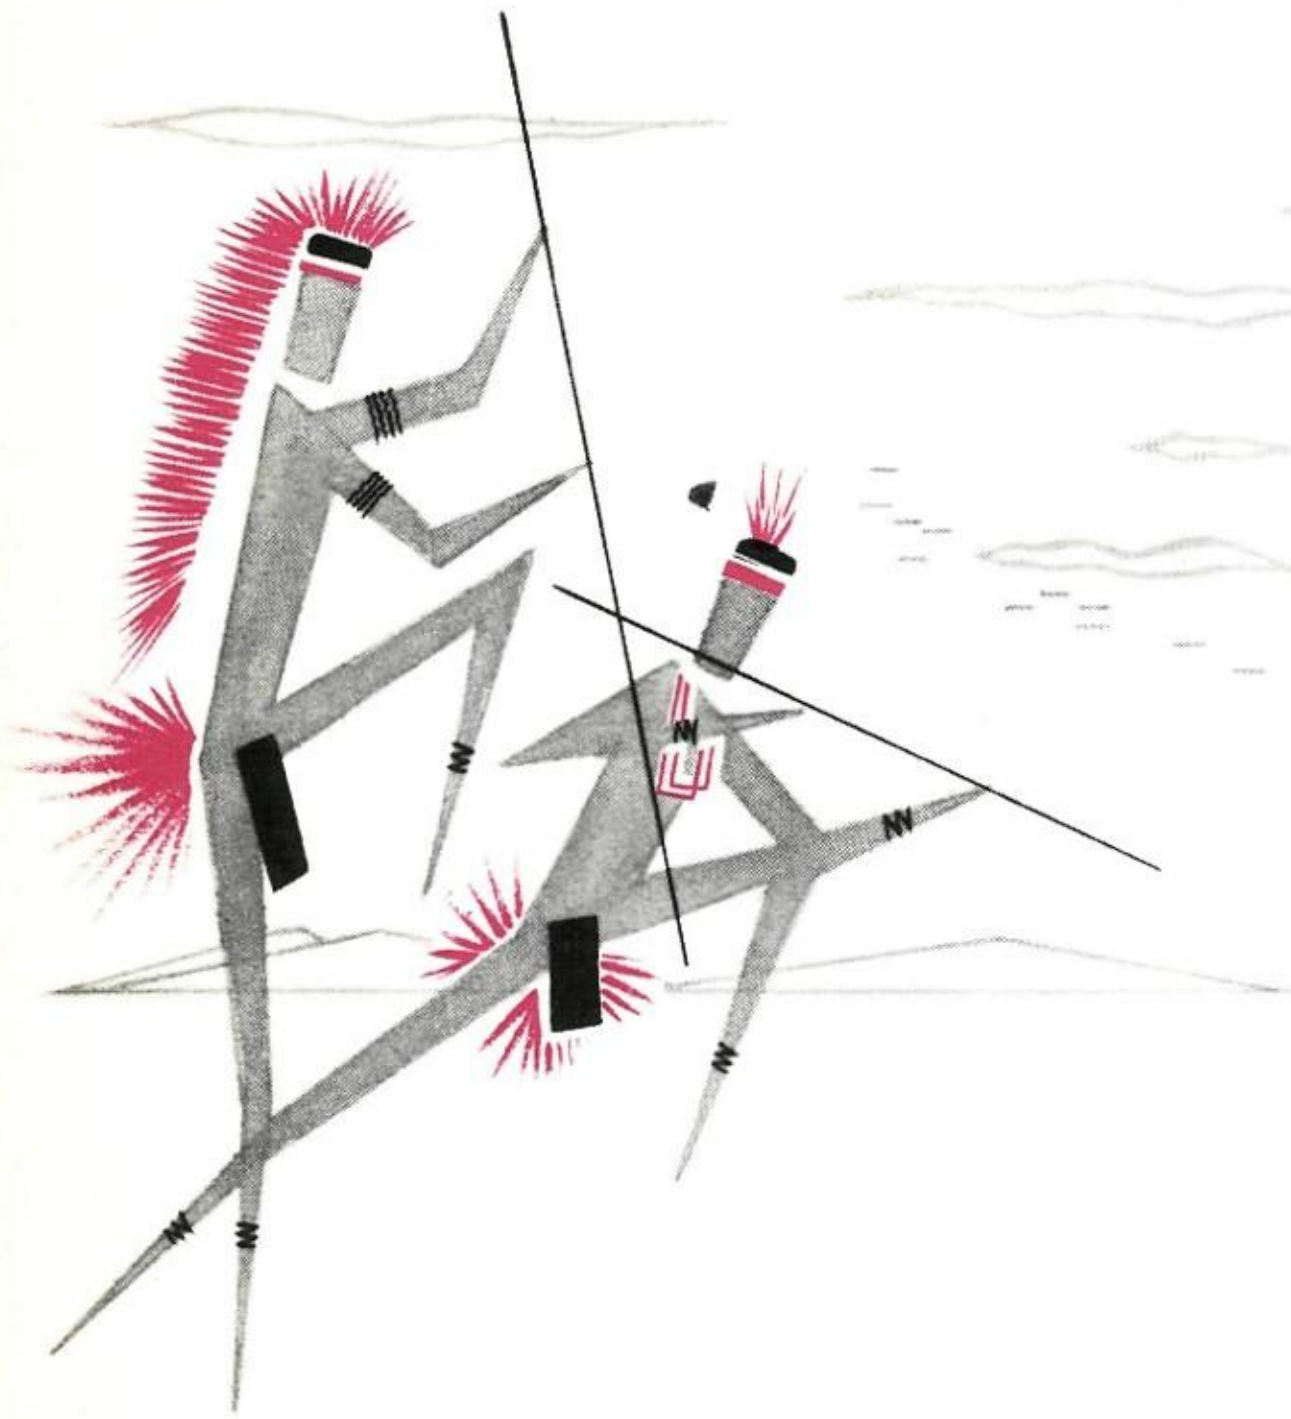

A grand sight soon to be seen is the new field house to be completed in the future. The picture shown here was taken in the early stage of construction.

BOTTOM:

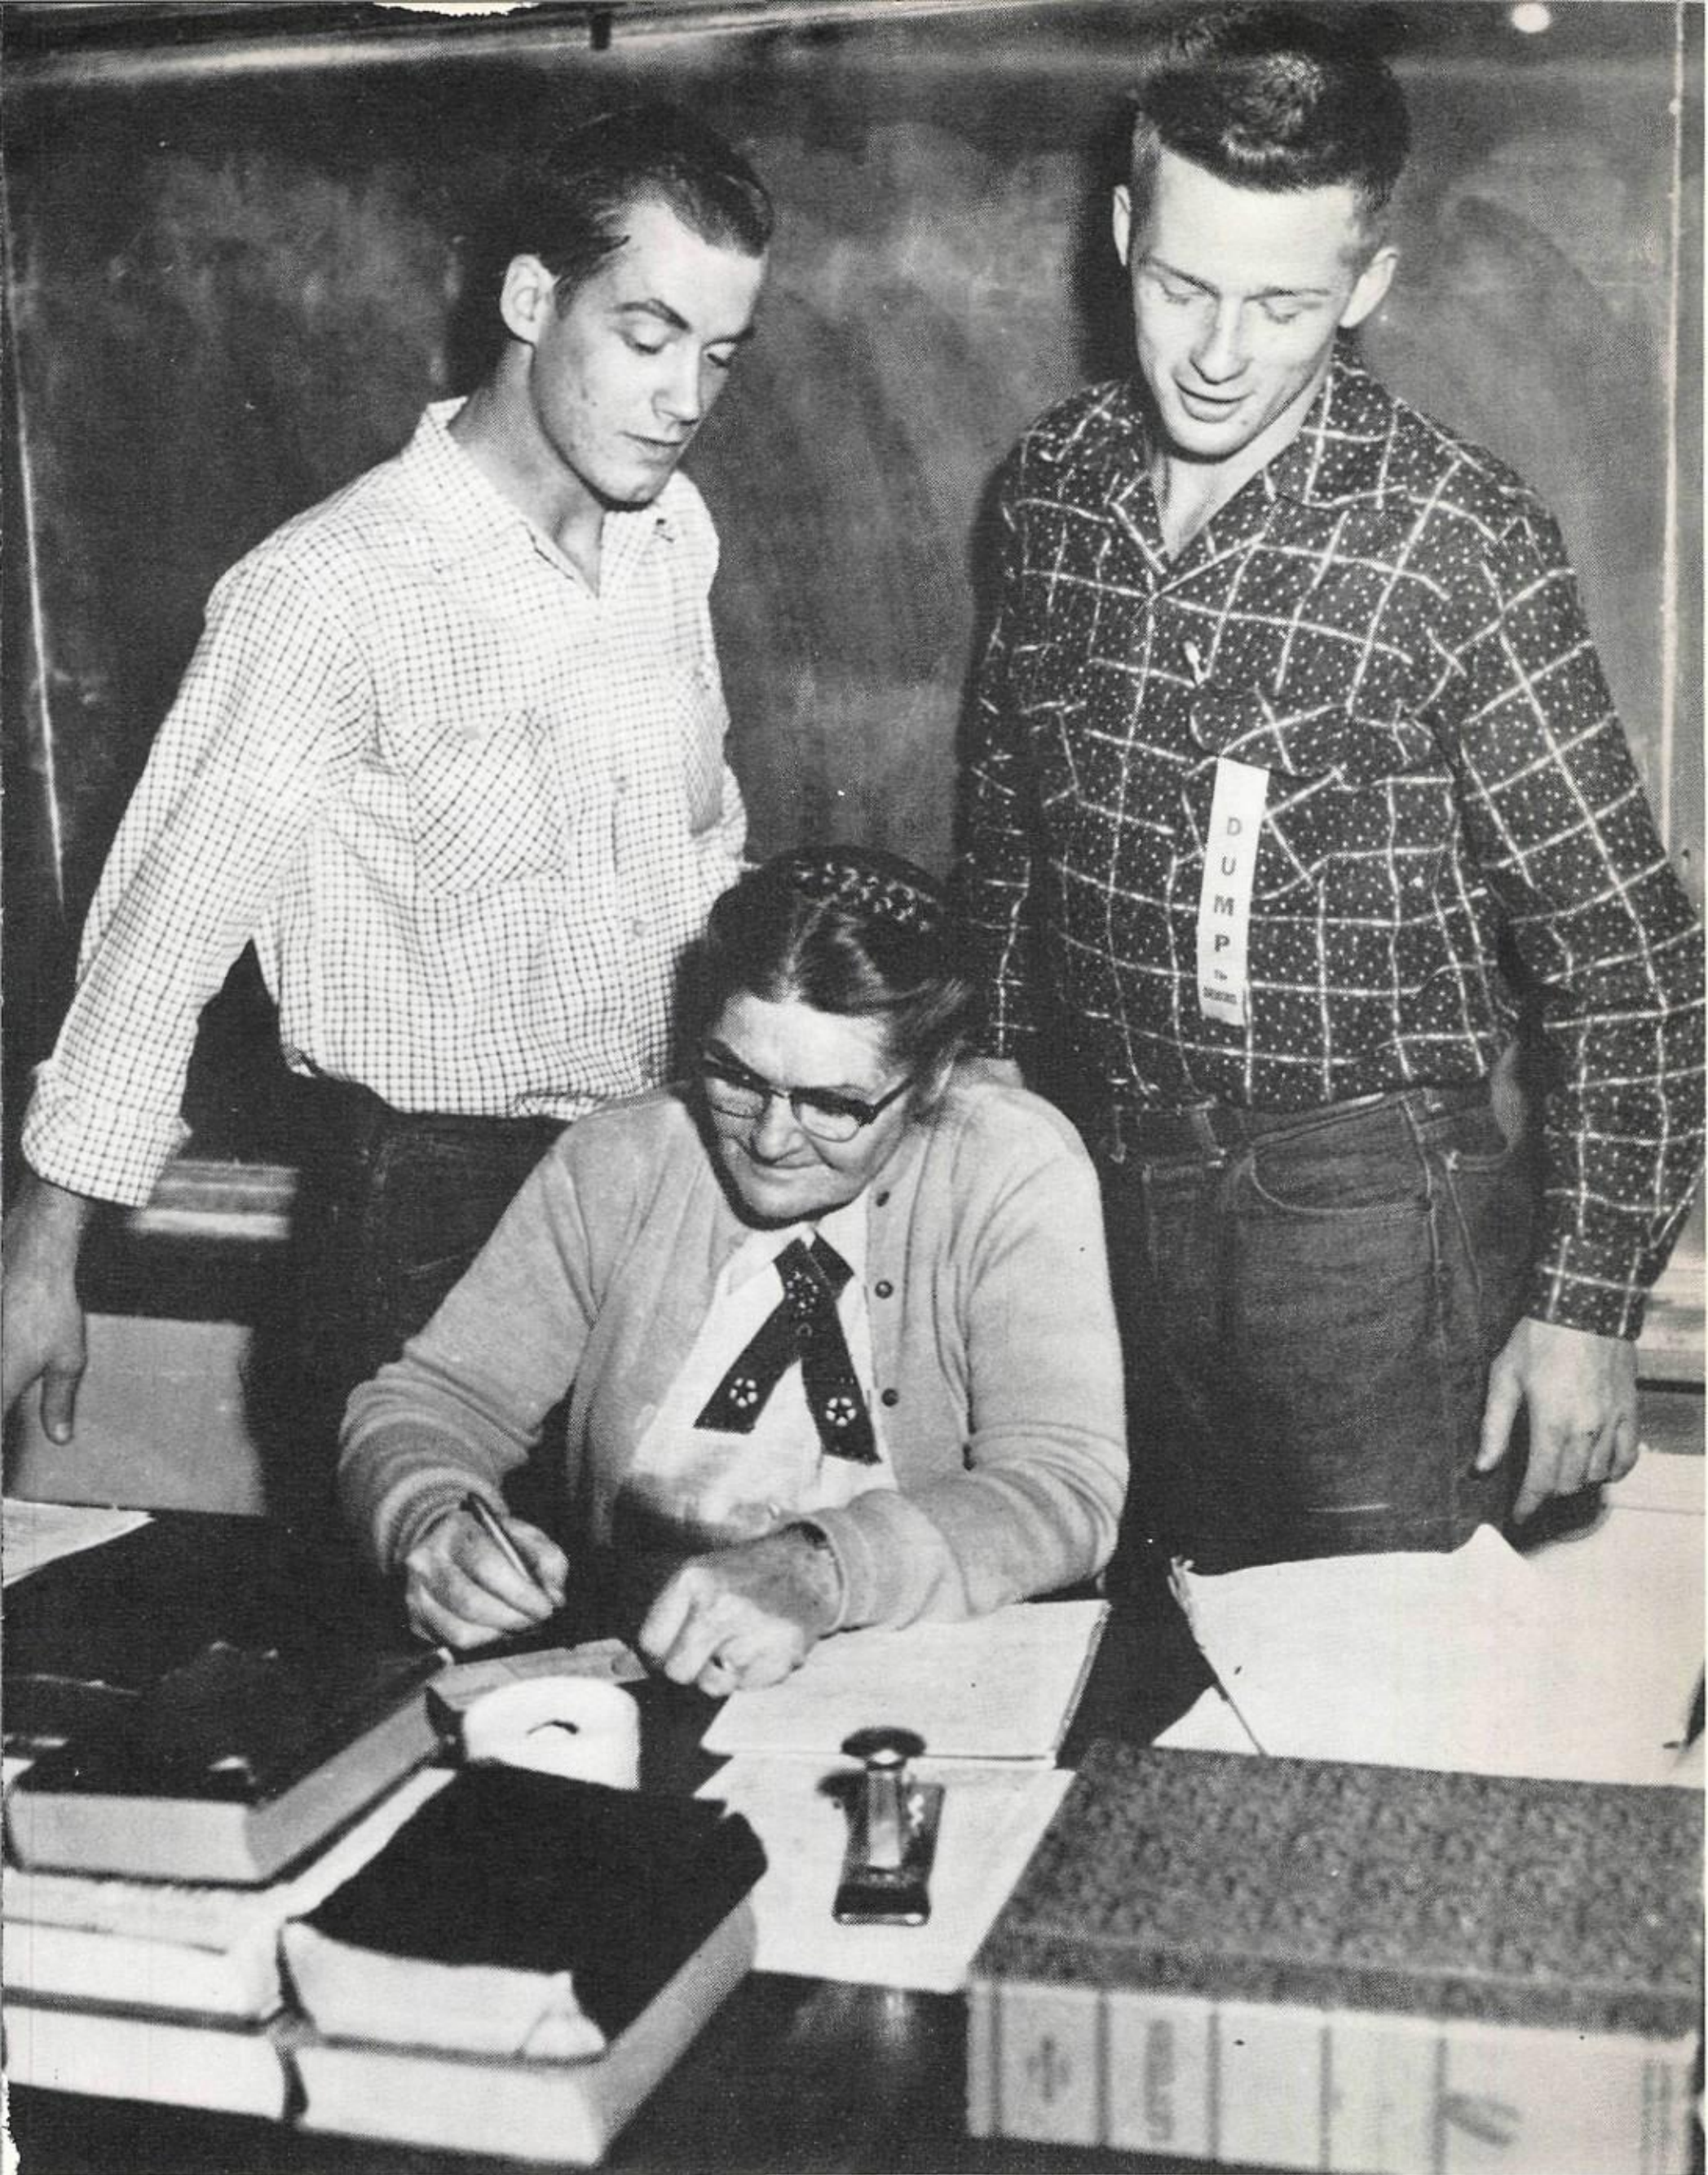

A school bus waiting at the corner and old glory flying over our alma mater typifies an everyday scene in the lives of all students enrolled at Capitol Hill.

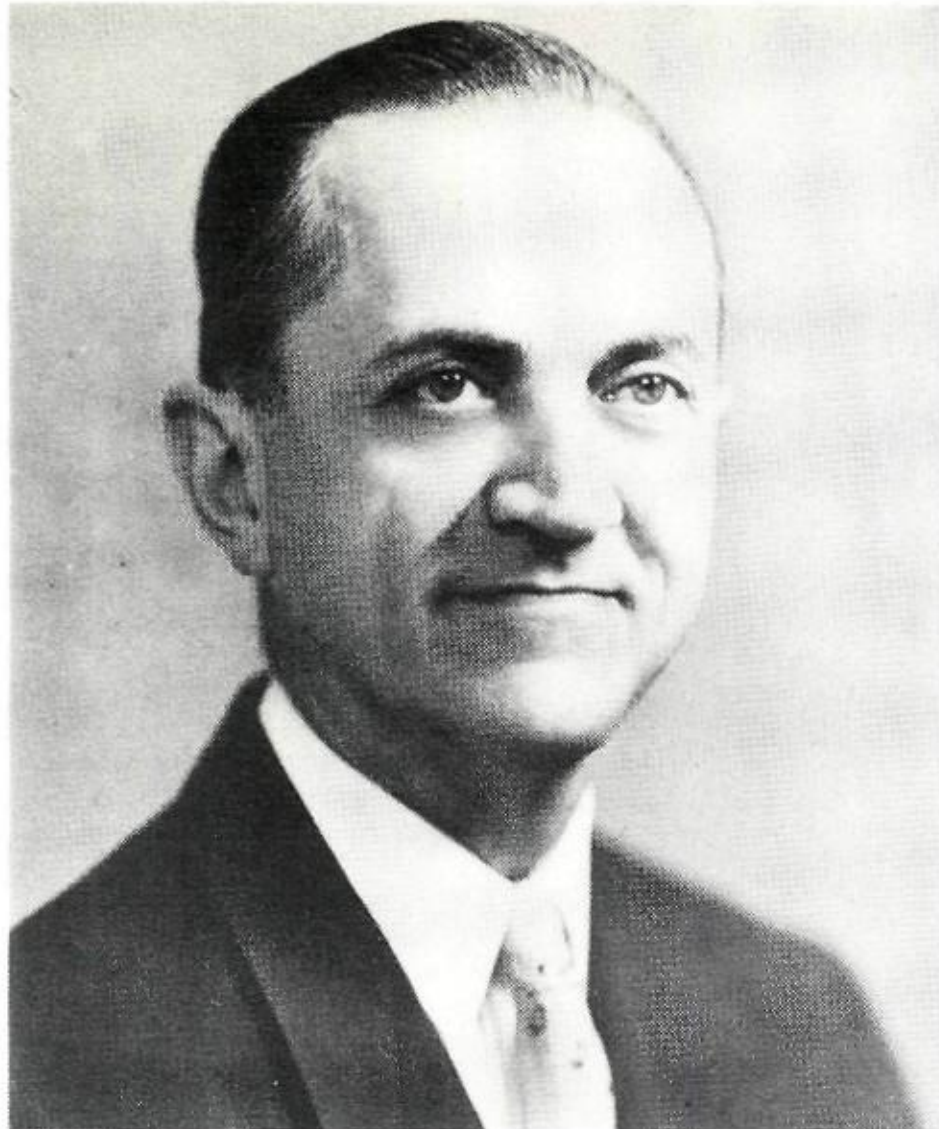

Well trained and competent teachers make up the administration at CHHS for 1954 and 1955.

Among these we see many new faces and faces that are very familiar to us. But whether they are new to CHHS or have been here for many years, they are the people who have encouraged us and struggled to help make our high school careers a success. They shared our joy when we succeeded; they gave us advice; helped us plan our parties and dances; and they made our classes enjoyable. We feel that we have the best administration any where.

DR. J. CHESTER SWANSON
Superintendent of Oklahoma City Schools

Another profitable year was conducted

MR. ALEX HIGDON
Principal

The big man who sits behind his desk in the office with a broad grin spread across his face is none other than Mr. Alex Higdon, our principal. It has been proven by many CHHS students that his heart is as big as he is.

Mr. Higdon and his wife, the former Faye Taylor, whom he met at Milfay, Oklahoma, where she was home economics teacher and science teacher, live at 4415 N. W. 10th. Since he has no immediate family besides his wife, Mr. Higdon claims the 2,000 students at CHHS as his children.

Mr. Higdon's hobby is to go places and see things. He also likes to work with the flowers in his greenhouse. A great spectator of all sports, Mr. Higdon may be found at almost every game.

by our well informed and capable leaders

MR. ALONZO ROOP
Vice-Principal

The resonant voice flowing through the public address system every school day during first and fifth hours belongs to the vice-principal of CHHS. Mr. Alonzo Roop has been at Capitol Hill for five years.

Having three married children and seven grandchildren would classify him as quite a family man. He and his wife, Helen Cooper, whom he met at the very tender age of six, reside at 3700 N. McArthur.

Bowling and baseball are his favorite participation sports, and he may be found observing almost every sport imaginable. Gardening is Mr. Roop's hobby while the sixth chapter of Micah is his favorite part of the Bible.

Mrs. Ruth Jones beams over the success of Mary Ann Woodson's skeleton she drew for the science fair.

As an old saying goes, "Variety is the spice of life," and there certainly is a large variety of activities to spice up the life of a CHHS student.

The year's activities really began when the pep clubs started pledging. Then the football season got under way with pep assemblies, bonfires, and shaker parties.

The annual Chieftain Capers show was held in November this year for the first time.

The Christmas season was ushered in with the KRKC Christmas dance, the first formal one of the year and also one of the largest.

Other sport seasons came and went with more pep assemblies, leaving Capitol Hill with many victories.

Then finally came the Junior-Senior prom, all the other senior activities, and graduation.

The seniors take with them a memory of a year well-filled with activities; and the juniors and sophomores look forward to another fun-filled year.

Chieftain staff members

Almost any time during the day and sometimes late at night, CHHS students can find some of the Chieftain staff busy at work in the staff room.

To most students the annual is cherished as a memory book, but to the Chieftain staff it is much more than that. It is the result of a year's hard work, worries, and disappointments as well as a symbol of all the fun and good times had while working on the annual.

Planning pictures, taking them, writing copy, and organizing everything into order are only a few of the many things that take up the time of all the staff members.

However, with a combination of all these things, everything is finally completed and theirs is a feeling of accomplishment and pride when someone makes a casual remark about the nice annual.

Keeping CHHS students up-to-date on the latest school and sports events in Capitol Hill is a task which the Redskin Arrow staff has performed very admirably this year.

The Redskin Arrow has undergone many changes and improvements since the first of school as the staff has become more experienced in putting out a good paper.

Most students don't realize the long process which the paper goes through before it comes to them. To start with the editors assign stories and the reporters write them. At this time they are copyread several times by the various editors. Next, the page editors decide where to put what story and after several more steps, the Redskin Arrow is printed and the reporters distribute the finished product to each homeroom.

Most staff members will agree that the feeling of pride when the paper comes out makes up for the long hours spent working on the Redskin Arrow.

Virginia Corley and David Yost reigned as Queen and King of the Chieftain Capers. They were chosen according to ticket sales.

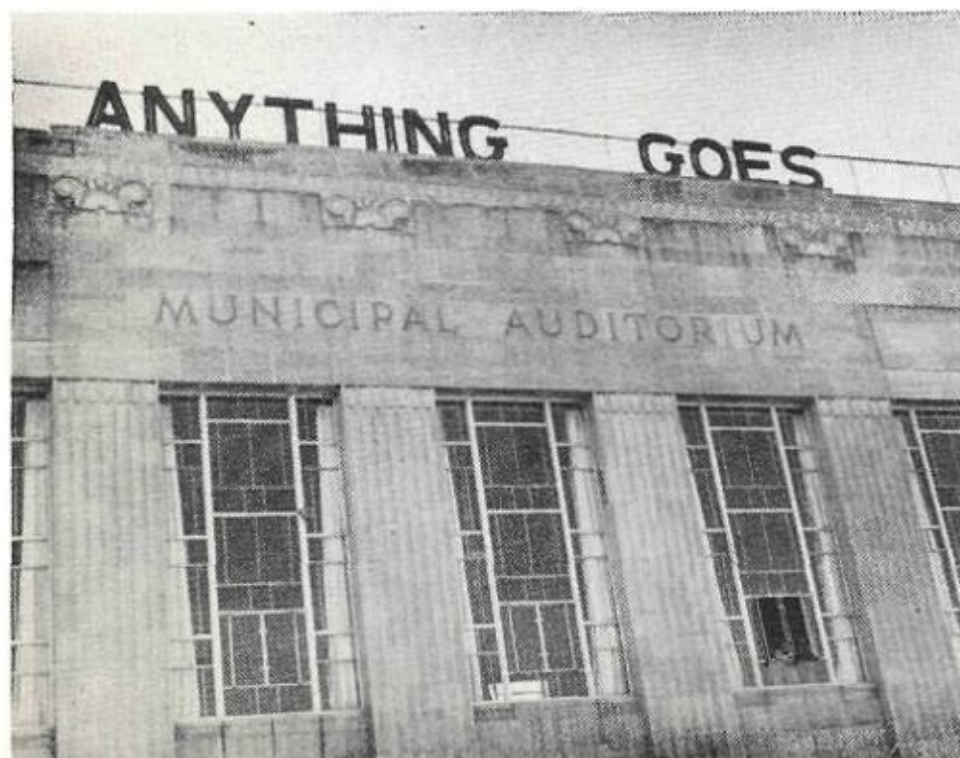

Wanda Jackson as Reno Sweeney, a show girl, sings the theme song of the Capers, "Anything Goes."

Avis Emry as Hope Harcourt looks on as Mike Fagin playing the part of the Captain and Mrs. Harcourt played by Maxine Layman discuss the problem of Hope's lover who is a stowaway on the boat.

"Anything Goes," a Broadway hit,

CHHS students were proud to see that for the second straight year they had the name of their production in lights.

The boys' quartet consisting of Pat Pilgrim, Gary Don Watson, Tommy Dixon, and Lavern Sutton sing "Lady Fair."

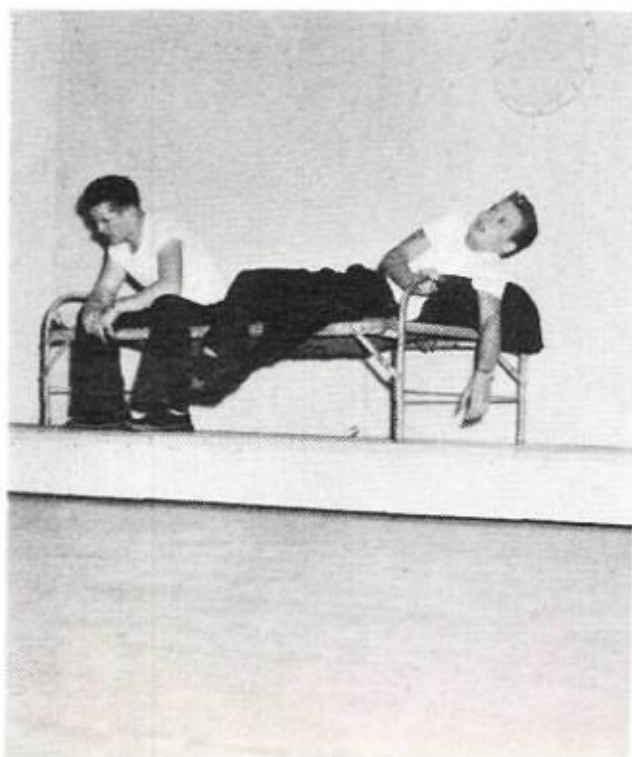

Thinking that Billy Joe Johns as Billy Crocker is one of the ten most wanted criminals, Captain Mike Fagin and La Nelle Schreck want to know all about his criminal career.

Billy Joe Johns, Wanda Jackson, and Bobby Bean pose as Chinese peasants to get into the home of Lord Oakleigh to talk to him.

was presented as this year's Capers

Billy Joe Johns and Bobby Bean ponder on the problem of how to get out of the ship's brig.

"You've got to help me," pleads Billy Joe Johns to Bobby Bean as Rev. Dr. Moon and Wanda Jackson.

"So you're going with us after all," says Wanda Jackson to Billy Joe Johns as they prepare to board the ship.

Johnny Edwards looks around his surroundings distastefully as Pat Ferguson, Betty Jo Spruce, LaNelle Schreck, and Billy Joe Johns wait hopefully for his opinion of their home in the junior-senior class play.

"I know I'm drunk, but I can explain everything," exclaims Bobby Bean to Johnny Edwards and Pat Ferguson in the background.

The junior and senior class presented

"Just what do you think you're doing," Johnny Edwards asks his nurse, Betty Jo Spruce, as his secretary, Pat Ferguson, looks on indifferently.

Mary Evon Thomas blushes becomingly while Johnny Edwards tells her that all he wants for Christmas is a memory of how she looks.

Pat Ferguson looks over Johnny Edwards' shoulder as he reads her the script for his radio performance.

Johnny Edwards looks very amused as Mary Evon Thomas tells him of all her experiences in Paris.

Betty Jo Spruce doesn't seem to be very happy as the practical joker, Larry Gregg, carries her to where Johnny Edwards sits.

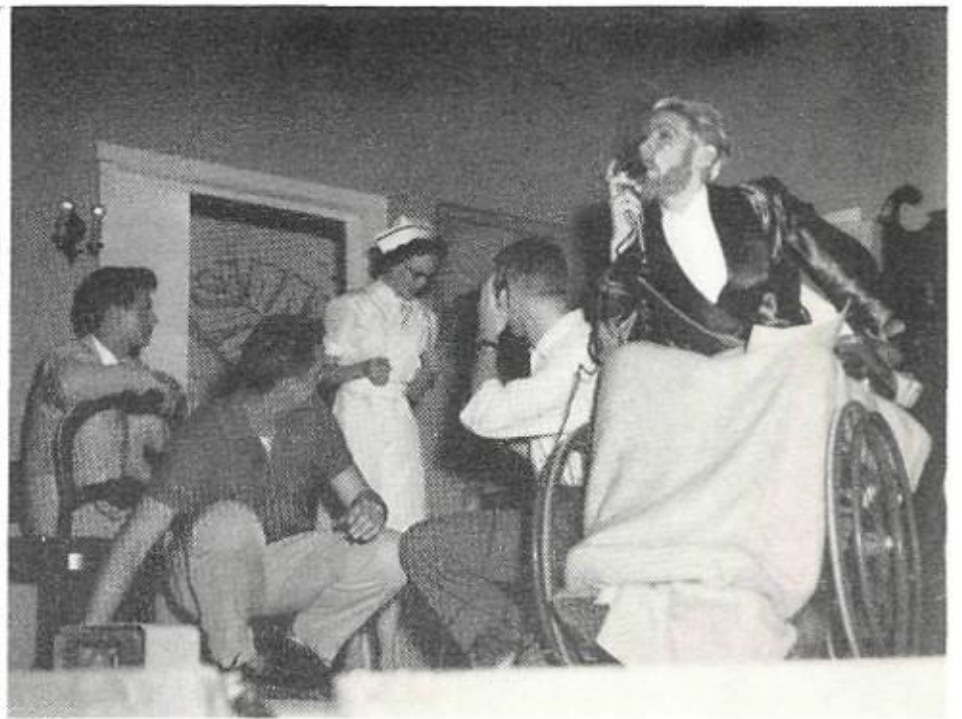

"I have a Christmas present especially for you," says the insane Shirley Killian to Johnny Edwards.

the play, "The Man Who Came to Dinner"

Pat Ferguson, Delmer Stone, Bobby Bean, and Johnny Edwards gaze with interest at Delmer's 10,000 cockroaches in the glass cage.

Bobby Bean sits calmly watching Betty Jo Spruce screaming as Raynond Cook and Dwight Moody work to get Johnny Edwards' equipment ready for his broadcast.

At the FFA coronation James Lookabaugh escorts Kathryn Crouch as in the background Virginia Corley is escorted by Ronald Ruyle.

Marian Bates, Carl Slayton, Beverly Minnick, Mona Hoskins, and Robert Hale, Knob mascot, flash big smiles as they ride off the football field after the KRKC coronation.

Joel Rochelle looks on as David Yost, Redskin president, places a crown on Shirley Kuykendall, Sweetheart.

Many pretty girls and handsome boys

Members of the Chieftains watch as Mattie Akers, Chieftain princess, is crowned by Jimmy Danner, president.

Deanna Acton, KiYi president, presents Bill McNutt, king, with a jacket and crown at the KRKC coronation.

Ronald Black, drum major, escorts Carol Masopust, band queen, off the football field after her coronation.

Jerry Golden, Clo Ann Hall, Dickie Soergel, Daisy Kelly, Carl Slayton, and Peggy Morris take time out for a few dances at the KRKC dance where the basketball queen was crowned.

Sally Burns from Classen and Richard Ahsmuhs were crowned Belle and Beau of the Oklahoma City journalists' "Ink Slingers' Ball."

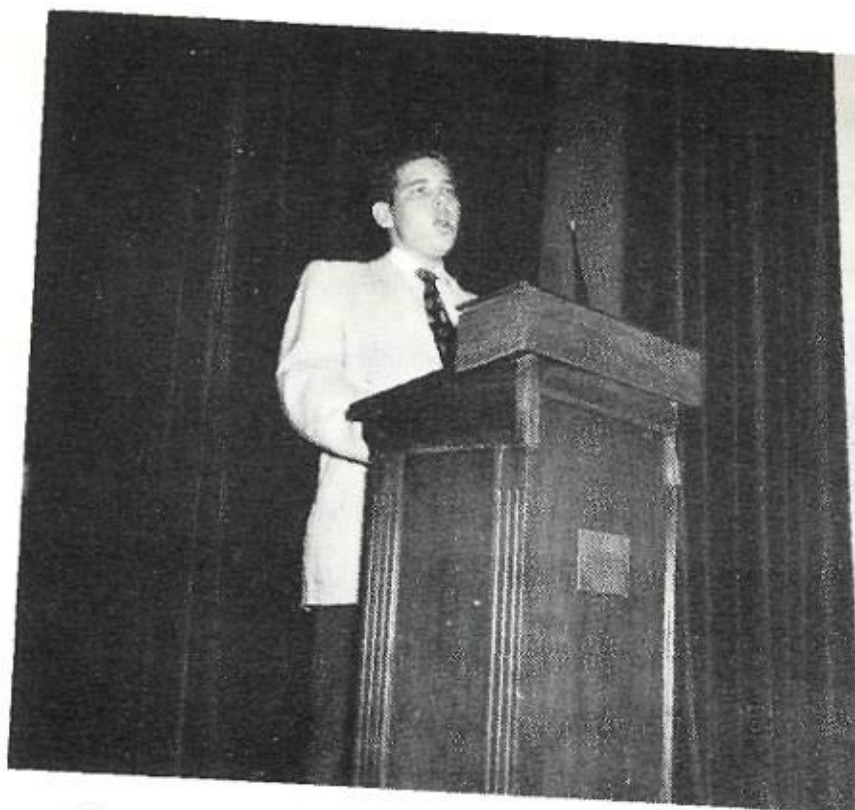

were crowned at our dances and games

Jack Stone's Blue Serenaders engaged in a battle of the bands with Waymon Jones's band at a dance in the CHHS social center.

Carl Slayton places a crown on Peggy Morris, basketball queen, as Dickie Soergel and Daisy Kelly, one of the queen candidates, look on.

Tommy Dixon sang "Three Coins In A Fountain" and several other songs in assemblies this year.

With all the pep shown by the yell leaders and other students during a basketball pep assembly, it was no wonder Capitol Hill beat Classen that night.

Much talent was brought out

Don't Marian Bates and Mary McGee make charming basketball players in their polka-dotted uniforms?

during our many assemblies

Girls in the pep club section stand during a yell in a pep assembly in the auditorium.

Mona Hoskins, Larry Knight, Jeanette Wheeler, and Charles Dorsey seem to really be enjoying their roles as yell leaders in an assembly.

Mary Jo Nail, Judy Wilson, and Delores Vernon help decorate the showcase on the main floor with the work of students in Miss Dorothy Mayes' art classes.

Students in Mr. Alvin Freiburger's problems in democracy class exercise their privilege to go to the polls and vote for student council officers.

The many extra-curricular activities

Tommy Morgan, Jimmy Blake, and Gary Blackmon study the cameras which Mr. Ben Cramer brought with him to the journalism class as he gave a demonstration on photography.

Dorothy Cramer, who ran for vice-president of the student council, puts a poster up in the cafeteria during the election campaigns.

Gerald Rodden, sophomore, donned a gorilla costume in order to advertise the preview, Gorilla at Large, which the journalism class sponsored.

Mike Simpson, Dick Hamilton, and Lynn Bryant don't seem to mind dusting the trophies, a project which the Key Club undertook.

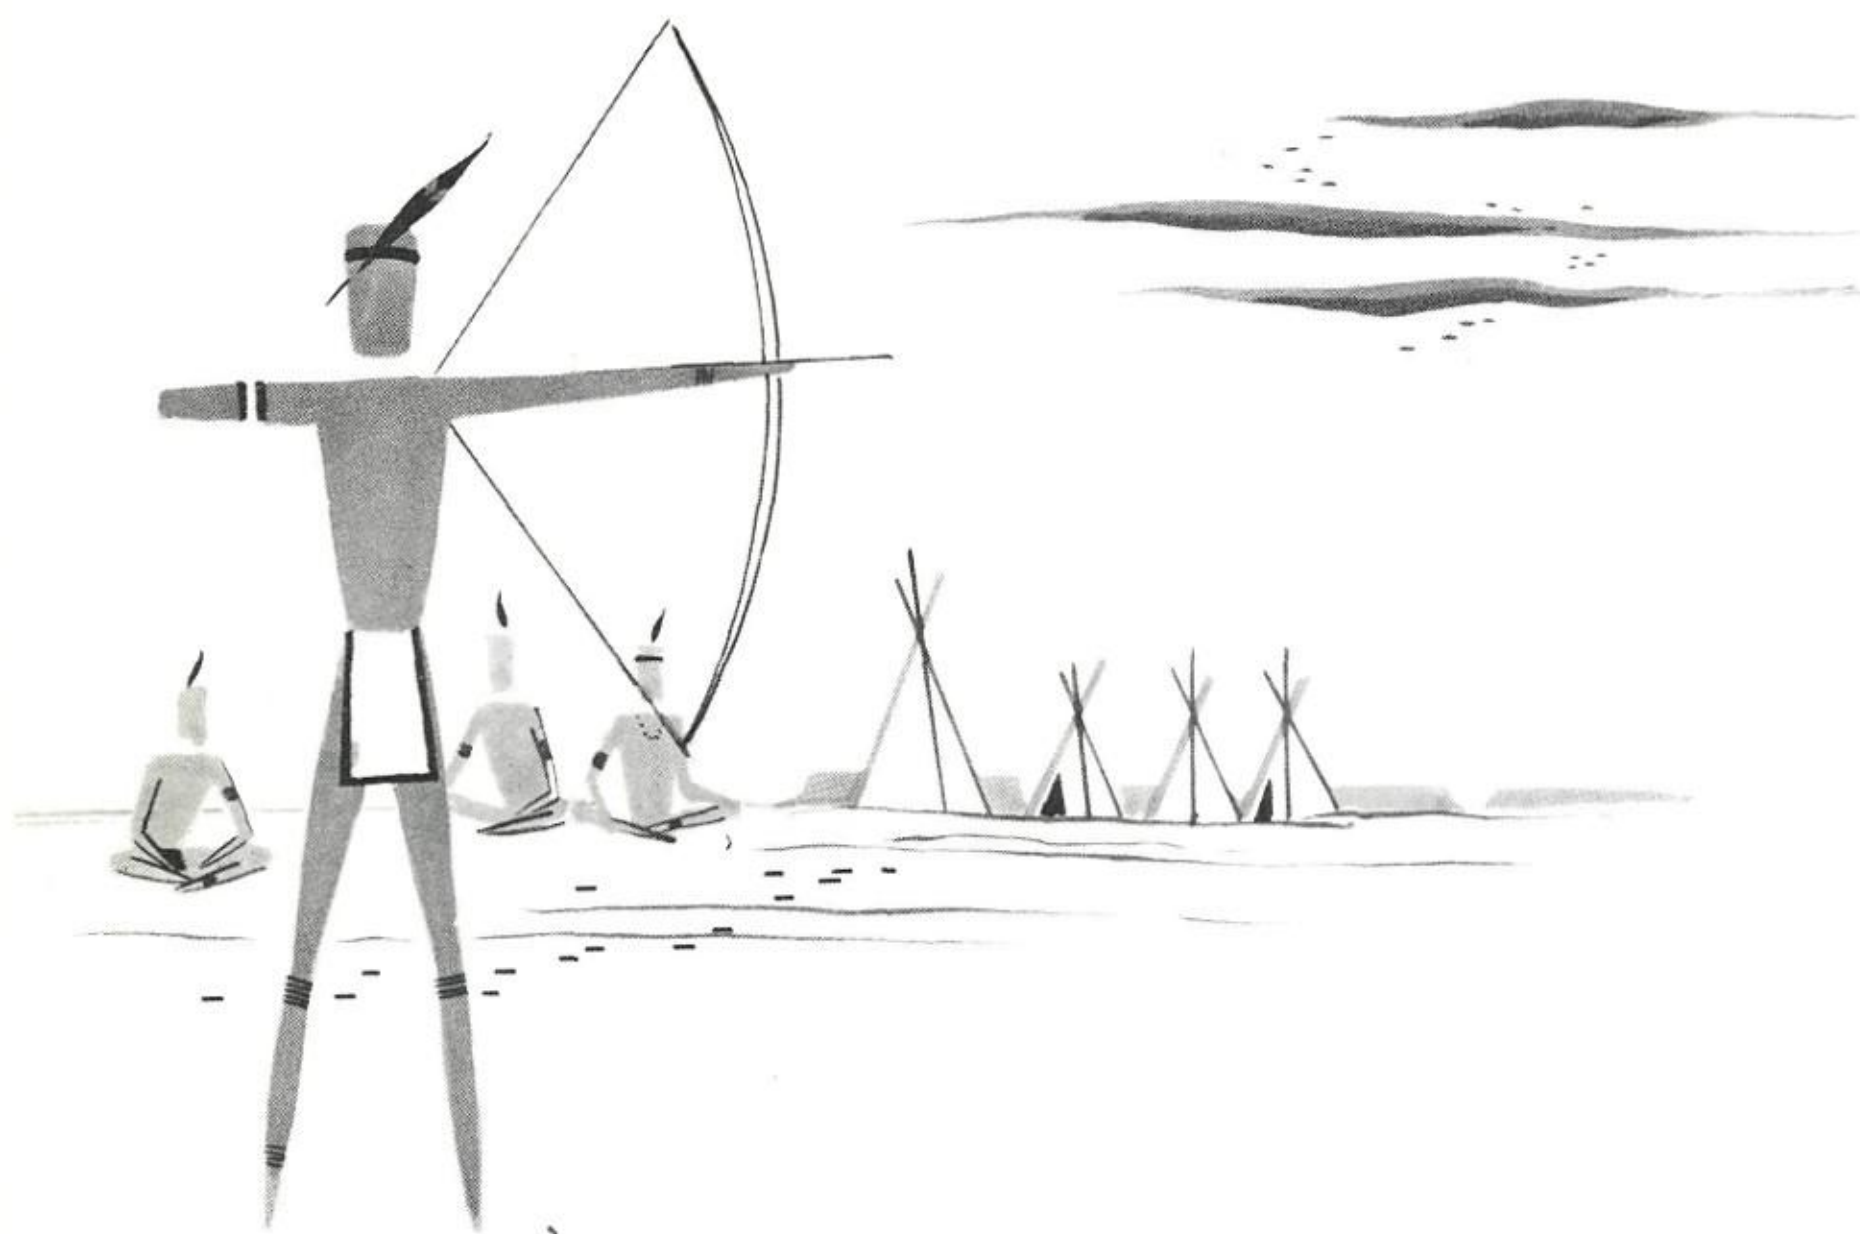

made this an interesting school year

FBLA members held their annual Christmas breakfast in the CHHS social center. They were seated around a table decorated with crepe paper and greens.

Martha Dunn, Shirley Richardson, and Ann Roberts from the homemaking department present Joyce Bell with a door prize at the FHA Open House.

Throughout the year sports have held a very prominent place in CHHS school life and this year was no exception.

Again this year as in the past Capitol Hill was proud of its various teams and had right to be. Perhaps no other school in the state can show such an outstanding sports record as Capitol Hill holds.

Good sportsmanship is the key word. Not only of the teams but of the student body. Good sportsmanship was shown on the football field, the baseball diamonds, the basketball floor, the tennis courts and the golf course by CHHS students and athletes.

Capitol Hill's great coaches and great teams again this year made sports tops in Capitol Hill.

Skin pighandlers take Mid-State

Soergel goes in to stop one man from catching a pass.

Starting their first three games as underdogs, the Skins fooled the sportswriters twice before falling as predicted. The fall was to Corpus Christi, the only highschool to beat the mighty Redskins all season.

Taking their sixth straight Mid-State championship, the Skins were coached for the fourth year by the capable C. B. Speegle.

The Skins came out of the battle with an 8-1 record ot place third in the state falling under Ada and Muskogee. Since there were no state playoffs this year Redskin football fans will always insist that they were really number one in the state.

Baseballers faced

Losing the last members of the three year "dream team" of coach John Pryor, skin baseballers gave a very good showing. Lost were fireball all-around Chuck Page, heavy-hitting Glen Plaster, and old reliable Willy Morse, who handled the catching chores for the last three years.

Nine returning lettermen aided this year's team as firstbaseman Jerry Davis; secondbaseman Dick Soergel; outfielders, Jerry Golden, Kenneth Pierce, and Robert Owens; shortstop, Donald Dunn; pitchers, Jerry Fields and Larry Warden; and catcher, Marvin Best, all came back this year.

The Skins suffered a surprise upset in the regionals when they were beaten 13-12 by upstart Choctaw. They had previously beaten Stillwater 11-0 to gain their birth in the semi-finals. Capitol Hill had a successful campaign through the regionals without the help of one of their starting pitchers, Larry Warden. Starting out good, the baseballers won eight straight games before dropping to the Northeast Vikings 7-1.

The Cross Country season practice started early this fall with several promising sophomores coming up from junior high.

The two milers under the coaching of Raymond Vaughn brought home their share of the honors in the meets.

Captain Laddie Nethercutt led the way for the other thin clads from Capitol Hill and captured several first place honors and never came in under third place.

The cross country competed with teams all around the southwest, taking trips to Tulsa, Norman, Lawton and Fort Worth.

Spring track for Capitol Hill seems to be promising. The first day was spent in electing captains for the three groups of spring track.

Jim Clark was elected captain of the sprinters, Laddie Nethercutt was selected for the long distance running and Bob McKenzie was chosen captain of the field.

Capitol Hill's first meet was the Southern Invitation held in Duncan which the Hillmen took first place. The next was the city meet in which they also won and set two new records.

Carl Slayton set a new record in the high jump. Bob McKenzie set a record in the discuss, for which he threw 151 feet, 6 inches. Capitol Hill's hopes are set high to win the '55 Midstate Championship.

Tennis and golf took their share

Harry Taylor, junior, was a big help on the tennis courts as A. D. Jacobson, coach, worked out the 1955 tennis team. Taylor won the pre-season city championship along with other numerous titles. Also helping out this year were Jack Howard, junior; Charles Straw, sophomore; Gerald Lawson, sophomore, and Paul Williams, junior. Williams and Taylor were the only two returning lettermen from last year's team.

Lost to graduation last year were James Rooker and David Eldridge. This was Jacobson's second year as coach of the Skins racket squad. Last year he took the team to the semi-finals at Stillwater and also did very well considering his full schedule.

of the sports spotlight

Under the capable coaching of C. B. Speegle, golf again played a minor role in CHHS sports. Changing their practice location from Woodson Park to the beautiful new Hillcrest Country Club, the linksmen, like other CHHS teams, found themselves facing a rugged schedule. This did not hamper them however in their efforts to regain the mid-state title.

Out for golf this year were Dwayne Cunningham, junior; Sug Lookabaugh, junior; Bob Cooper, senior and Buddy Brownlee, junior.

The Skins lost Jerry Matheson and Bob Worley last year and Cunningham and Lookabaugh were the only two returning lettermen. Next year's team should be more experienced and capable of being a worthy match for any rival team.

We set our goal high

Stepping back a pace into second place, the girls softball team gave up their all city title to Northeast who defeated them 23-5. This was their only set back of the season.

Starting for the team were Melissa Sharp, catcher; Carolyn Snell, pitcher; Wilma Ridley, first base; Eleanor Jaco, second base; Judy McNew, third base; Joyce Spencer, short stop; Joyce Brewer, left field; Wilma Moxley, center field, and Jo Abbott, right field.

Despite the fact that this year's basketball team was one of the greatest they wound up the season in third place among the city highschoools.

The team defeated U. S. Grant, Southeast, John Marshall, and Central. They, in turn, were defeated by Classen and Northeast.

This year's team was composed of Wilma Ridley, Carolyn Snell, Melissa Sharp, and Carolyn Earhart, forwards; Wilma Moxley, Jo Abbott, Louise Sapp, and Judy McNew, guards.

Most of the girl's volleyball team this year was made up of juniors and sophomores, with Judy McNew, Wilma Ridley, and Eleanor Jaco being the only seniors. Others on the team were Joyce Spencer, Carolyn Snell, Louise Sapp, Fran Robertson, Melissa Sharp, Pat McNair, Lee Ann Toumbs and Shirley Walker.

Under the supervision of Mrs. Ruthann Wilson, the girl's swimming team was organized. They entered a tournament at Classen and although no one placed in the event they will be more experienced for next year.

This was the first year on the swimming team for each of these girls and they showed fine sports ability.

Capitol Hill has always been proud of the fact that it offers one of the largest variety of clubs in the state of Oklahoma.

Some started with pledging, others by informal teas or coke parties. But whether large or small each is regarded with equal importance in the eyes of those who strived to help make their club or clubs one of which to be proud.

As a salute to our many organizations we hereby dedicate this section to the people pictured in the following pages who made up the organizations of CHHS.

The executive board of the student council is made up of officers of the four classes in addition to others who are chosen from the student council. Their meetings are held once a week at which time they plan the agenda of the next meeting of the student council.

This year the board sponsored a "Twirp Week" held January 11 through the 18th. The object of this was for the girls to pay the boy's way on dates and also ask them for the dates. Girls were required to hold the boy's hand and also carry his books to class.

This year Capitol Hill had the honor of being president of the Southern Association of Student Councils which is composed of 14 states. The convention, which was held at Jackson, Mississippi, was attended by five delegates from our school. They were Bill Reid, elected by the student body of CHHS to represent Capitol Hill as president; Harry Merson, president of the CHHS student council; Ann Smiley, vice-president; Mary Jane Carter, secretary and also Nova Haining.

The student council includes one representative from each homeroom, all class officers, student council officers, and Miss Sara Cohen, sponsor.

A rushee tea was the first activity on the agenda for the Ki Yis, one of the more active pep clubs at CHHS. This tea was to honor all rushees and any other students who were still interested in joining.

Nissens shoe store furnished the room and shoes and Graysons furnished the clothes for ten Ki Yis to model in a style show held in the fall. All members were required to go and door prizes were given. All models got a 15 percent discount on any shoes at Nissens.

Early in the fall, Nancy Stewart was named best pledge at the annual Ki Yi's initiation which was held at the Lions Club.

Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets were filled for needy families by the Ki Yis. The food was brought to the meeting preceding the holiday.

Bill McNutt was crowned Ki Yi King along with the other pep club royalties at the half time of the homecoming game.

The Ki Yis also sponsored many other worth-while activities. Those included dances, wiener roasts and a pep assembly for the Duncan game, November 5.

One hundred and fifty pledges was the goal set by the Knobberette pep club and with a lot of hard work they reached that goal. A free trip to the Norman vs. Capitol Hill football game was the result of getting the set amount. The Knobbs held a tea early in the school year to interest students in the club. They also had a get acquainted party in September for all new members. They sponsored several activities this year which included two dances in the social center and their annual initiation which was held at the Lions Club.

The club also has their own choral group called the Starlighters. These girls sing at various meetings of service clubs and have made some appearances on television.

A pep club to be proud of is the Chieftain Pep club which boasts of about seventy-five members. Junior and senior members gave the sophomore pledges a rough time during their six weeks of pledging and the pledges became full fledged members. Members enjoyed many fine activities sponsored by the club. With bus trips, weiner roasts, hayrack rides and of course football and basketball games with the Redskins, they all had a well-rounded year of fun which helps to build school spirit.

The Redskin pep club was fairly small this year compared to previous years but had an active season. They started off the year with the usual pledging. After that they painted the press box in the stadium, which was badly in need of paint.

The club also held a hayrack ride later in the year. The members and their dates met at the Nichols Hills Riding Academy.

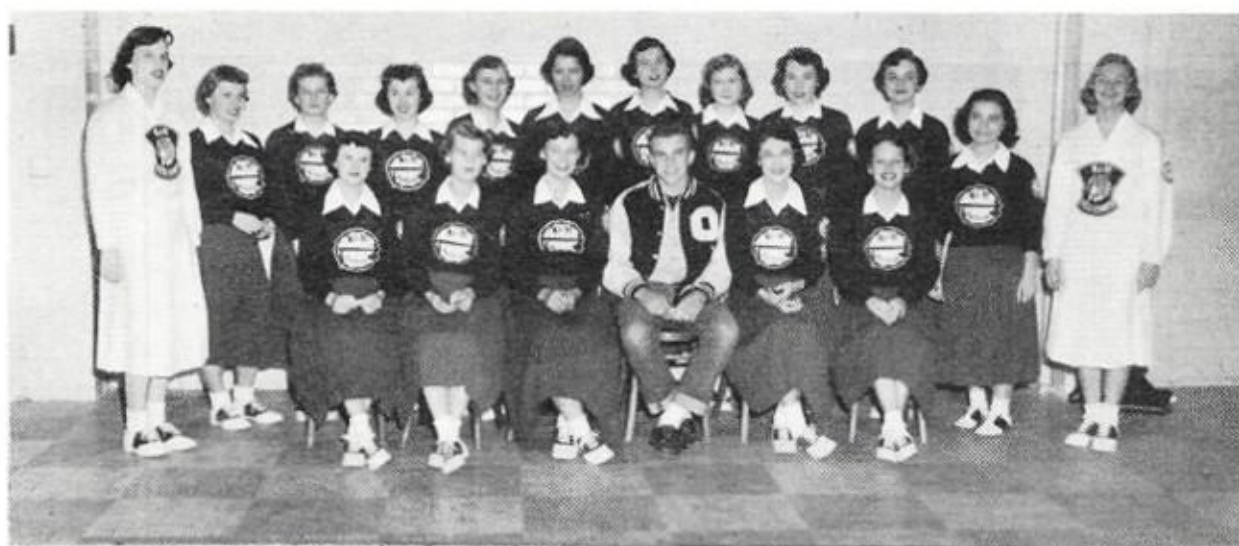

The highlight of the year was the initiation held in March.

The officers of the Ki Yi's and Knobberette pep clubs contribute greatly to the success of their clubs. These officers not only make the rules and laws which the members follow but they also must be responsible to see that the club is run smoothly at all times and to keep the school year more interesting by planning different activities. It is up to them to set the right example for other pep club members to follow.

The Y-Teens gained much recognition by participating in outstanding activities this year. Included in these were meetings with various other schools in the city to discuss current problems; the traditional hanging of greens at the YWCA preceding Christmas holidays; a covered dish dinner for the Hi Yi's; a February Sweetheart Banquet; and a St. Patrick's Day party for one of the wards in the Crippled Children's Hospital.

Requirements for membership in the Future Business Leaders of America club are that one have an interest in Business and be enrolled in a commercial class.

Members of the club held a Thanksgiving dinner at Dodson's Cafeteria. Senior girls who had a commercial class and were a member of the FBLA for at least one year were eligible to take part in the Miss Ideal Secretary Contest. The winner is named after the girls report to a business office downtown, where they are judged on their personality and ability to do office work.

Anyone around Miss McClure's room knows of the friendly spirit which pervades in her classroom. The happy dinners together with Spanish students from other schools, and the gay celebrations which are a part of learning Spanish.

The Fiestas like the "El Cinco de Mayo" recall colorful celebrations that are world-wide in scope. The soft Spanish trills echoing over the class as they read, remind us of our friends below the border, and make for friendly relationships around the world.

After losing a large part of the female section of the choir at graduation in 1954, Mr. Al Ossenkop started things anew last fall with the annual choir "get acquainted picnic." The new students, as well as the old, got a taste of the fun that was in store for them this year.

Many students of CHHS and many Oklahoma City citizens will long remember the beautiful background singing of "Anything Goes" which was so nicely done by the Choir.

Another highlight of the year for them was the "Musical Extravaganza" which is the annual Band Choir show.

Carol Masopust, Band Queen.

The "Pride of Capitol Hill" has just about completed another busy year. The Capitol Hill Highschool Band, which has 137 members, has been under the new direction of Mr. Melvin Lee, who is in his first year at CHHS.

The band always starts the year off right by coming to school every morning at 7:30 to practice marching and playing for the football games. You have all seen and heard the band play at the football games and the pep assemblies. The students continue this 7:30 practice until the football season ends.

Every once in a while the band members have some pleasure mixed with the hard practice. In November the band members had a party at Will Rogers Park and on March 14 they had a skating party at the Rocket Skating Rink.

"The Pride of CHHS"

The band has played in four parades. They have also presented a concert for the P.T.A. This year the band has made two appearances for which they will be remembered. First the band made a magnificent performance in the Chieftain Capers and later equalled it in the production of the musical extravaganza with the choir.

Among the contests which the "pride of Capitol Hill" made appearances at were as follows: The Enid Tri-State Band Festival, the District Contest at OCU, and the Band Clinic at Waurika.

One of the most popular organizations in the school is Capitol Hill's own swing band. This band, which is composed of twelve accomplished musicians, provided wonderful entertainment for assemblies, dances and during basketball games. Under the able direction of Jack Stone the band achieved much fame during the school year.

A club which plays an important part in the dramatics department is the stage club. Any persons who are connected in any way with the speech department are eligible to become members of this club. The members each ordered white coveralls as a part of standard working equipment.

Matheson, S. Jennings, P. Burris, Biddy.

Journalism students who have had a year in publications and who maintain a "B" average are eligible to become members of the Quill and Scroll, honorary journalism society.

Capitol Hill's chapter is known as the Stanley Vestal Chapter. Dr. Walter Campbell (Stanley Vestal) spoke to the club at their initiation held at the home of Mrs. Enola Barnes, sponsor. Nine pledges were installed as new members in an impressive candle light ceremony.

Under the capable leadership of Mr. Earl Edward Stewart, the Writers Guild club entered many essay contests this past year.

To be a member in this club one must maintain at least a "B" average in English and must write either a poem or an essay. After one of either is written, it will be judged by the members and sponsor.

We worked as a whole

One of the main activities of the year for the Art Club of CHHS was a trip to see an art exhibit at the University of Oklahoma.

Requirements for membership are that the student have a "B" average in an art class.

Art club students also helped students get in the mood of Christmas by placing decorated window panes in doors of each room in the building.

We at CHHS are proud

Anyone who has had one year of highschool science with a B+ average, can obtain membership in Sigma Chi Iota, the honorary society for stimulated interest in science. Eight new members were initiated in the fall. Members were encouraged to enter the Science Fair held in March at the Municipal Auditorium.

Under the capable sponsorship of Mr. D. F. Cooley, the Operators club has finished another year of outstanding contribution to the school. This club is responsible for the showing of movies to the various classes of the school. Boys who were interested in becoming members of the club had to first be enrolled in the movie projection class. This class teaches the fundamentals of operating projectors and gave the boys experience in operating them. Each member must have recommendations from three teachers before they can enroll in this class.

Activities of the National Forensic League are many and varied. Aside from school plays, members participate in city and state tournaments. CHHS has been outstanding in debate and other variations of speech work throughout the past year. Although these works have always played an important part in Capitol Hill's school life, this is the first year of existence for a chartered club of National Forensic League. Mr. L. J. Semrod was sponsor of the club.

The Distributive Education Club of CHHS is for students who have half day classes and spend the remainder of the day in working at their various jobs.

Don Dailey, president of the school chapter of DE, was also elected president of the Oklahoma Distributive Education Clubs. He was awarded a trip to Richmond, Virginia, for the National DE meeting and a scholarship to the University of Oklahoma.

Games in sports, participating in dances, and taking part in school activities is only a part of what the Girls "O" Club do during the school year. To become members the girls have to be active in sports and have an average of 125 points in last hour teams.

Their main project for raising money was the selling of donuts before school almost every day of the week. They also sponsored a dance held in January called the "Flunkers Fling."

During the holidays the club held a party for the members this year and a reunion for last year's members.

Boys who excelled in either football, basketball, baseball, tennis, track, or golf are eligible to become members of the boys "O" club.

In the fall a banquet was held for the parents of the boys who were going out for the 'A' or 'B' squads. The purpose of this was to acquaint the parents with the different coaches and to point out the safety angles and advantages of each piece of equipment used during a sports game. Sponsors of the club who are all coaches of different sports are C. B. Speegle, John Smith, John Pryor, A. D. Jacobson, L. H. Bengtson, Ray Vaughn, and John Gavula.

Education in CHHS is the essential part. Each year students come and go and as the year fully rounds out, the book of knowledge is opened for the ones who will partake of it.

In the following pages is a sketch of the students in CHHS. The time has come for seniors to leave, juniors to advance and sophomores to forward themselves.

May the following pages be a great memory of friends, fun and knowledge.

We started a fun filled year

Our last year at Capitol Hill was meant to be fun. Although we had hardships there was always fun! Our likes and dislikes helped make the year complete.

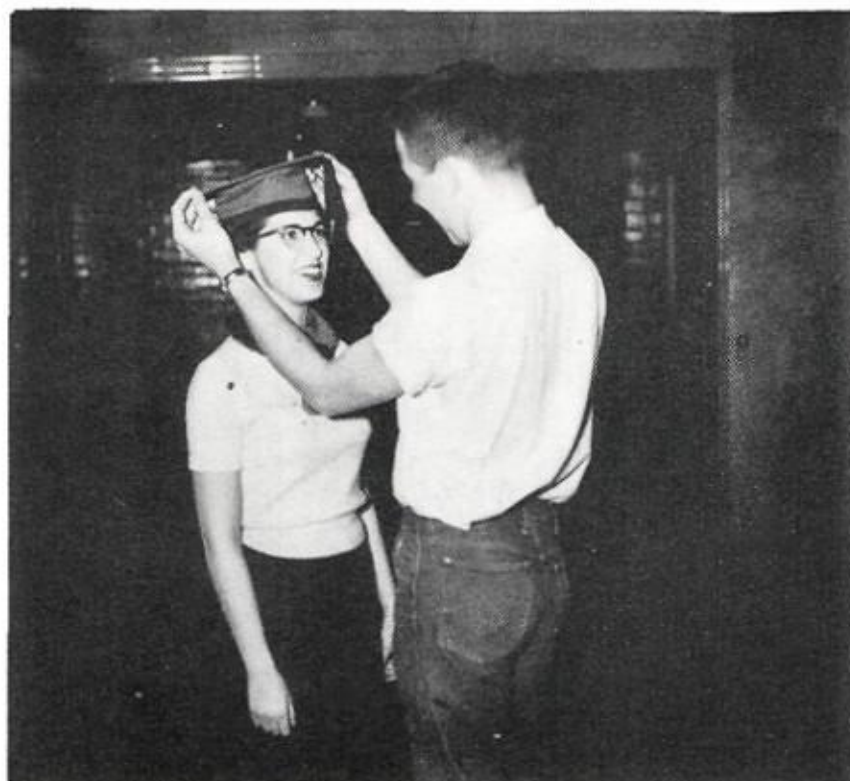

With the excellent officers chosen we had a great senior class. It was not all play though because we had to gain an education. The cute girls and boys helped keep some seniors' minds off their work.

Popular music, dances, and other school projects made the year more pleasant. Sports highlighted the year for many. However, the more fun we had the less we wanted to leave.

The thing that meant most to us at the end of our great journey was the awards.

Senior class sponsors are Mr. Wendell Hubbard, Mrs. Della Mize, Miss Dorothy Mayes, Miss Blanche Smith, Mr. Earl Hiller, Mrs. Janet Spencer, Mr. Harry Hall, Miss Lillian Corley, Mrs. Marybelle Luper, and Mr. Jess Carpenter.

Keith McClung helps Pat Johnson fix her hat as each looks forward to that awaited moment of graduation.

We made it now as seniors

Time passes quickly and as we juniors look back on the two wonderful years at CHHS we are very proud that we have been a part of it.

We were very proud of our class rings that we displayed this year. We also are noted for the best in talent. We planned the Junior-Senior prom and we had our one play production.

We got to pledge the sophomores for the first time and so now we feel we have planted our feet in CHHS. We planned for our futures as a college students or for our careers. We elected our officers with pride. We took part in all activities, dancing, sports and social life.

Now we have finished our grand year and we can now look forward to becoming the big wigs at Capitol Hill High School next year.

ROW 1: Jo Abbott, Lillian Abney, Vonda Abston.
ROW 2: Wilbert Adlemen, Helen Adler, Carol Allen.

working our way for grades and friends

ROW 1: June Ard, Teresa Armstrong, Wanda Atchley, Vaughn Autry, Kenneth Baker, Linda Baker, Beverly Baldwin.

Term themes were a main interest in Mr. O. R. Williamson's class as Scottie Bowlware and Douglas Hilbert receive aid.

ROW 1: Gary Blackmon, Alice Blackwood, Darlene Blair.
ROW 2: Julia Bloom, Mary Blurton, Joe Bohner.
ROW 3: Dorothy Box, Claude Borthick, Norma Boulware.

We supported our teams and teachers

ROW 1: Scottie Bowlware, Roger Bowman, Joyce Brewer, Rita Brewer, Jerry Britton, Joni Brogdon, Don Brown.
ROW 2: Jackie Ann Brown, Patsy Brown, Virginia Brown, Buddy Brownlee, Leroy Bruza, Ruby Bryant, Pat Buchanan.
ROW 3: Richard Buckhalter, Lanetta Bunyard, Nancy Lou Burns, Peggy Burris, Ann Burrows, Laverna Busbee, Alan Butler.

 ROW 3: Lewis Chesnut, Mildred Childers, Shirley Chilton, Carolyn Clark, Katherine Clark, June Claymore, Nola Clayton.

We kept up our grades and our clubs

ROW 1: Nova Clifton, Jane Coffey, Lavona Coggins.
 ROW 2: Carol Collins, Danny Collins, Bill Colvard.

for our fellow classmates

Row 1: Sara Hosack, Radine Housley, Jack Howard.

Row 2: Jack Huffman, Lura Hughes, Donald Hunter.

Row 3: Arlene Hyde, Barbara Jackson, Darlene Jackson.

A familiar sight in the CHHS halls is exemplified here as Mildred Humphreys and Kathryn Stewart chat at their locker as they prepare to go to class.

 ROW 2: Don Jones, Joy Jones, Lynn Jones, Delores Jun, Doug Keffer, TaWanna Keith, Dorothy Keller.
 ROW 3: Jimmy Kelly, Lera Kelly, Merrilyn Kimmel, Gladys Kerr, Glen Killian, Juananita Kinsey, James King.

Pledging was fun when

This was not in the rules of pledging for Quill and Scroll but it was good for Christmas as left to right Carol Collins, Bobby Roedl and Richard Ahsmuhs display.

ROW 1: David Kimery, Delores Kirby, Shirley Klotz.
 ROW 2: Eddie Langston, Mary Lankford, Carolyn Laubhan.
 ROW 3: Woody Lauderdale, Helen Lawson, Terry Lawson.

NANCY SMILEY
Secretary

Our first year at CHHS was a wonderful one. We loved the campus, school, and everyone connected with it, and it wasn't long before we were acquainted with its customs. The teachers were patient and understanding (for some of us, they had to be).

We pledged for our choice of pep clubs and a variety of other clubs. Class and school elections were just a small part of our activities. Some went out for sports, while the others were always ready to support Capitol Hill's beloved teams. We helped in planning assemblies, dances, and other entertainment.

With our activities ended we feel that this year has been very profitable as well as enjoyable.

We entered CHHS
